

S.J.S COLLEGE

KURTHA, ARWAL (BIHAR) -804421

(A Permanent Affiliated Unit of Magadh University Bodh Gaya)

Sahid Jagdev Samark College , Kurthia

Contact Details:

Email Id:-

S.J.S Information

Situated in the center of the Arwal district of Bihar, India, Shahid Jagdev Smarak Mahavidyalaya is a living example of the lasting importance of education and community service. The institution was founded with the goal of empowering the local youth, and it has since grown to be a major hub for both social and academic advancement. The institution bears the name Shahid Jagdev in remembrance of the great liberation warrior, embodying his spirit of sacrifice and devotion.

Principal Message

Amar Sahid Jagdev Prasad, the Mahavidyalaya's founder, was honored with the establishment of Sahid Jagdev Smarak Mahavidyalaya. S J S Mahavidyalaya is located in the Arwal District on the Kinjar-Kurtha road. The Mahavidyalaya was refounded in 1982 after being established in 1971. The Mahavidyalaya is located in a remote community that serves as a significant hub for higher education. The Mahavidyalaya has had many difficulties and failures since its founding, yet it is still moving forward and succeeding today. It has got permanent affiliation from Magadh University in the fields of Arts, Science, Commerce.

This Mahavidyalaya has a reputation for offering top-notch instruction. This institution is making a name for itself and winning honors in the district and around the State. My heartfelt thank you to every teacher and staff of SJS Mahavidyalaya who are doing a tremendous job to achieve our objectives & also attracting students for admission. There were scarcely any other associated Mahavidyalayas in the year of its founding, since this Mahavidyalaya had succeeded in forging its own distinct identity in a very short amount of time. Students are drawn to this Mahavidyalaya because it presents itself as a prestigious intellectual establishment. Our students are proudly representing their Mahavidyalaya both at the state and national levels thanks to their exceptional performance in the Bihar Board and Government University Examinations.

About Mahavidyalaya:

SJS Mahavidyalaya, Kurtha Arwal, Bihar Mahavidyalaya was established in 1971. This Mahavidyalaya is located in a serene, rural, and isolated environment surrounded by the Punpun River, which flows by on both sides. This Mahavidyalaya has 11 acres, 33 decimals of land, and has a network of enormous buildings, has a unique character as the Arwal district's legacy. SJS Mahavidyalaya attracts students from far and wide to study here. Since this Mahavidyalaya was founded in 1971, however it was bind up due to the demise Amar Sahid Jagdeo Prasad. Once again in 1982, because to the locals passion for knowledge, the Mahavidyalaya was restructured. Due to the persistent efforts of the Mahavidyalaya's founding president "Shiv Sharan Singh" from Sachhai Village and founding secretary "Ramanand Mehta" of Khatanga village, this Mahavidyalaya is regarded as one of the best Mahavidyalaya in this district.

In 1985, former Chief Minister of Bihar "Shree Karpuri Thakur" and former Minister "Shree Ram Lakhan Singh Yadav" along with former Shoshit Samaj Dal National President "Shri Ram Swaroop Verma", inaugurated this Mahavidyalaya. Subsequently, former Bihar Minister "Mrs. Suchitra Sinha" and former Union Minister "Shri Nagmani" provided invaluable assistance for the growth of this Mahavidyalaya. The Mahavidyalaya has developed to greater heights because to the unwavering efforts of "Dr. Ram Uday Narayan" the former principal. Bihar, India's Sahid Jagdeo Smarak Mahavidyalaya is a regional leader in both community development and educational advancement. The Mahavidyalaya was founded with the goal of advancing higher education and aiding in the intellectual and socioeconomic development of the community. Over time, it has developed into a prominent establishment in the area.

The wellbeing of the students is the Mahavidyalaya's constant goal. By being included among the district's and Bihar's top institutes for their test scores, the students have elevated the Mahavidyalaya to a position of honor. The Mahavidyalaya works really hard to give these deserving students scholarships. Scholarships for students with disabilities and members of the backward class have been sought for.

Academic Program Details:

Shahid Jagdev Smarak Mahavidyalaya provides a varied range of undergraduate programs tailored to the educational needs of its students. The Mahavidyalaya's major goal is to provide a comprehensive education that prepares students for both professional achievement and personal development

- BA (Bachelor of Arts)

The BA program includes specializations in subjects such as English, Hindi, History, Political Science, and Sociology.

- B Com (Bachelor of Commerce)

The B Com program focuses on various aspects of commerce and business, including Accounting, Finance, and Economics.

- B Sc (Bachelor of Science)

The BSc program encompasses disciplines like Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Biology

Important Notes: After the summer vacation, the academic session of the college starts from 1st July.

Method of enrollment in first year Arts, Science and Commerce

Enrollment is only possible through the specified form acquired from the college administration for a charge of Rs 300.

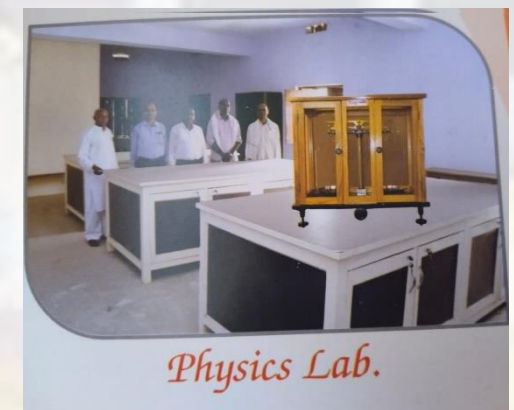

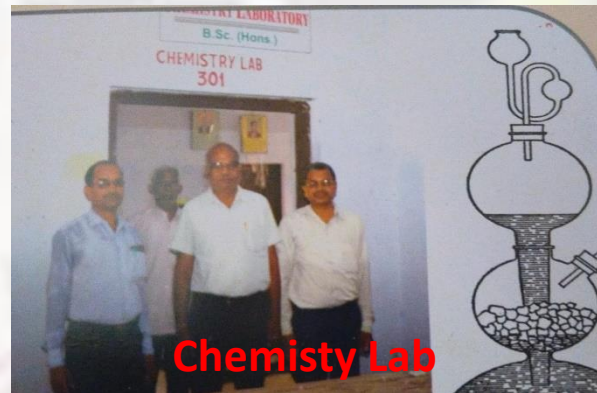

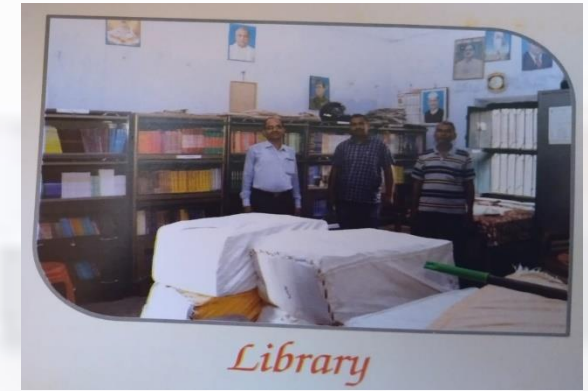

Enrollment are announced through newspapers and information.

Our college follow the Norms of Magadha University and Bihar Government

Students from the Scheduled Castes & Extremely Backward Classes are eligible for preferential admission based on their marks. Students' must be completed scholarship form at the time of enrollment.

Admission list is prepared on the basis of marks.This process happens more than once.

Facilities:

Mission

: Shahid Jagdev Smarak aim is to provide high-quality education that promotes academic performance, personal development, and ethical leadership. We are committed to offering a holistic learning experience that blends challenging academics with practical skills while cultivating an environment of creativity, diversity, and community participation. Our mission is to help individuals from all backgrounds reach their full potential via a variety of undergraduate and postgraduate programs. We want to produce graduates who can make important contributions to society by cultivating intellectual curiosity, stimulating research and development, and encouraging active engagement in community service. Our objective is to drive good change by promoting knowledge and inspiring people to lead with integrity and purpose

Vision

: Shahid Jagdev Smarak is to be a prominent institution that promotes academic achievement, diversity, and community development. We aspire to deliver a transformative education that instills pupils with critical thinking, leadership abilities, and a strong sense of social responsibility. We are committed to innovation and sustainability, and we want to establish an atmosphere that encourages intellectual progress, personal development, and lifelong learning. We aim to enable our students to have a good influence on their communities and the globe by using cutting-edge technology and encouraging civic involvement, so crafting a brighter future for everybody

Thank you